Protect Taiwan's Precious Forestry Resources

Promote Soil and Water Conservation to Reduce Natural Disasters

Illegal Logging is Strictly Forbidden! Violators will be Prosecuted to the Full Extent of the Law!

- The Forestry Act greatly increases fines for the theft of primary and subsidiary forestry products. Anyone involved in the cutting down, transportation or storage of such forestry resources, as well as those who knowingly purchase them are criminally liable and will be fined.
- The maximum penalty for severely damaging the natural eco-system or precious landscapes is a prison sentence of 10-years and 6-months and a fine of NT$1.5 million to NT$30 million. In addition, if an individual is indicted by prosecutors and found guilty in court, the Ministry of Labor will revoke his/her employment permit in accordance with the provisions of the Employment Service Act, and impose a lifetime ban from working in Taiwan. Please obey the laws of the country during your time in Taiwan.
- If you have any information on illegal logging call 0800-000-930. For information that leads to an arrest a maximum reward of NT$3 million is available.
- If you encounter any problems relating to your labor contract, salary, work hours, are treated unreasonably or physically injured, call the 1955 Counseling and Protection Hotline for Foreign Workers and expert staff will provide assistance.
