When signing up for prepaid phone cards in exchange for cash, be aware these can be used by scam gangs to engage in criminal activity.

“Signing up for prepaid phone cards is not only free, you can exchange them for cash”

Although you thought this was a chance to make some easy money, you are now the accomplice of a scam gang.

Police could prosecute you as a gang member, as a result of which you will undergo criminal investigation and be liable to pay compensation in any civil lawsuit.

Only apply for prepaid phone cards for your own use. Do not sell them to a third party, avoid becoming a victim.

If you suspect you could be the victim of a scam, protect your rights by calling the “165” Anti-Scam hotline or “1955” hotline
